Crab Orchard.

Quite a number of Stanford people are enjoying a stay at Old Dripping. There are about 75 guests at Crab Orchard Springs and no better host and hostess ever had charge than Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Willis.

Work is progressing rapidly on the fair grounds and this promises to eclipse any fair ever held here. William C. Gormley, of Richmond, is here assisting in remodeling the track and will have some fine horses to exhibit.

Mrs. Polly Gresham is quite low of the infirmities of old age at the home of Mr. Alfred Davis. Mr. Metcalf and family, of Zion City, are at the King Hotel. Miss Fannie Radd has gone to visit her aunt, Mrs. Kate Potter, at Manchester. George DeBorde, Jr., is at home for a rest.

The members of the Christian church desire as many donations as possible by Aug. 12 and if by that time they have enough to justify a contractor in beginning, work will commence by middle of August to rebuild the stricken church. Let all interested in God's work respond liberally and be rewarded.

Henry D. Campbell has moved into his new cottage on Stanford Street, which is quite an addition to that end of town. Mr. James Anderson has built an ell to his house and otherwise remodeled and repaired it. Mr. G. W. DeBorde is having a dining room and kitchen built to the rear of his house and Peyton King, the finest decorator and painter in this end of the county, has charge of the painting, which means it will be done right.

HIGHLAND.

Mr. B. D. Hlat started out with his threshing this week.

The blackberry crop promises to be very fine, while peaches and apples are scarce.

J. S. Young sold his mare and new buggy to his son, D. L. Young, of Pittsburgh, for $168.

Crops are looking fine. Some of our farmers are not quite through laying by their corn on account of so much rain.

Jeff Hale sold to Lutes & Co. 6 90-pound shoats at $22. J. Y. Goodpastor sold to Mr. Huen a cow and calf for $31. E. T. Pence was here looking for hogs.

School began Monday in the Greasy Ridge and South Fork districts with Mrs. Laura Lee, of Kingsville, as teacher of first named and Miss Ethel Adams, of Fishing Creek, of the latter. Miss Annie Gooch, of Waynesburg, has been employed to teach the Highland school and Miss Amanda Carson, of Hustonville, to teach the Mt. Moriah school.

Mrs. H. S. Young and children, of Science Hill, spent several days this week with the families of C. M. and E. E. Young and E. G. Baugh. Miss Sallie Light, of Louisville, is visiting her grandfather, H. P. Young. Craig Butt has gone to Corbin. Mrs. Lucy Faulkner has returned from a visit to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Surber, of Corbin. Harlan Adams, who has been at work at Bernside, is at home again. Walter O'Dare, of Science Hill, was visiting his father this week. Charley Love and wife, of Kingsville, are visiting the family of F. Rogers.

Crushed because he had been fined and sentenced to the county jail as a "masher," Charles L. Morehead, a Louisville barber, committed suicide by swallowing a quantity of morphine.

LANCASTER.

Marriage licenses were issued this week to Ernest H. Ill and Miss Amy Mullinger. Both are from Richmond. Robert E. Hughes has returned to the fair after a visit to his parents. The opening ball at Crab Orchard was well attended Friday evening.

Miss Jessie Doty entertained Friday evening in honor of Miss Alice Walker, of North Carolina. At the proper hour delicious refreshments were served and all enjoyed the hospitality of the charming hostess.

The people of this community were sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Nancy Dunn, which took place Friday at her home near Bryantville. Her funeral was conducted Sunday at the Fork church and her remains were interred in the Lancaster cemetery.

Miss Phillips, of Nicholasville, has been the guest of friends here. On Sunday she presided at the organ of the Christian church. Her music was greatly enjoyed by the audience. She will be one of the three music teachers at Jessamine Institute next year. Mr. Hudson and wife, of New Orleans, and Mrs. Joseph Knight, of Nicholasville, are with friends here. Miss Mamie Ballard is the guest of Miss Bessie Lear.

The State Y. M. C. A. held services in the different churches of our city Sunday. The evening service being a union one, was held in the Christian church. Mr. Rosefield, assisted by Messrs. Lucas and Dick conducted the services. The work that is being done by this organization is acknowledged to be fine. Its influence is being felt everywhere and bids fair to be established in every nation where the Christian religion is known.

Mrs. J. B. Skinner, president of Jessamine Institute, has been here for several days in the interest of her school at Nicholasville. Mrs. Skinner is well known to our people, her husband having had charge of old Garrard College and his corps of teachers was the best ever employed by that institution. Mrs. Skinner offers a school for the training of young women who wish to fill the positions that the changing conditions of life offer. Altogether, her school has many advantages.

MATRIMONIAL.

Jesse Walls and Miss Bettie Walls were joined heart and hand on the 16th. The engagement of William Waldorf Astor's daughter, Pauline, and Capt. H. H. Spender-Clay is announced.

William Batterson, of Kansas City, formerly of Danville, will be married Tuesday to Miss Laura Moore, of Missouri.

Fifty years married and 15 children living are notable facts in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Thompson, of Lebanon, who will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary July 21.

Mr. and Mrs. James Blackburn, of Woodford county, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Henrietta Blackburn, to Mr. Benjamin Harris Wallace, of Chicago. The wedding will take place Aug. 17.

Miss Ollie, daughter of Hon. H. L. Jones, of Corbin, and Joseph Payne, of Crab Orchard, son of the well-known jeweler and confectioner of that place, were married at Williamsburg Thursday. Mr. Payne is to be congratulated on winning such a pretty and popular bride.

Mrs. Mattie McRoberts, one of the most popular citizens of this county, was married in St. Louis to J. W. Riffe, of Augusta, Kan., who was formerly a citizen of Lebanon, and a son of P. B. Riffe, who wrote the book entitled "Celeste."—Casey News. The bride is the widow of Dr. O. P. McRoberts, formerly of this place.

GARNISHEE LAW CHANGED.—Of interest to merchants is the new garnishee bill which passed the last Legislature and which became a law recently. The bill repeals the provision of Sections 1901, Kentucky Statutes, with reference to exemptions from attachment: "Provided, That the exemption of $150 shall not apply to debts, contracted for food, fuel, medicine, raiment or house rent for the family." Under the old law the wages of a person earning less than $50 a month, were not subject to attachment unless for food, raiment, fuel, ect. Now the exemption for debts of that character is the same as the exemption for any other debts. Under the present law unless a person earns more than $50 a month, his wages cannot be attached for any debt.

Cicero Reynolds and his able assistant, Mr. Henry Newland, have completed surveying and locating the boundary of our graded school district. Their work has been quite laborious, as each line they ran, beginning in the front door of the college, ran a straight line through fields of corn, hemp, wheat, etc., which with the temperature well up in the 80's, made the work unusually disagreeable.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
ALTON BROOKS PARKER,
of New York.
For Vice President,
HENRY G. DAVIS,
of West Virginia.

APPELLATE COURT CONVENTION.

The democrats of this part of the Fifth Appellate district should not forget that mass conventions of the party will be held at the county seats of the several counties comprising the district, on Tuesday, August 2, 1904, to appoint delegates to the district convention which will be held at Lexington on Thursday, Aug. 4th, to nominate a candidate for judge of the court of appeals. Remember the time—Tuesday, August 2nd, at 1 o'clock P. M. Place, court house.

THE Somerset Journal talks horse sense when it says: "Those ultra newspapers in Kentucky that have begun whistling before we get out of the wilderness, and to tear shirts in a frenzy of self glorification, should cool off at once. There is still a republican party in Kentucky to reckon with in November. There is still a large element of the democratic party before which the aforesaid ultras have cringed in the past. There are Congressmen to be elected, and four years hence a State ticket. Let us go as they will in the National contest this year, it is a policy both safe and sound to maintain that harmony which was cultivated in the St. Louis Convention so assiduously. Silence is commendable in Kentucky, though it may prove best broken in the Eastern States. The policy of slapping democrats in the face has not won in the past, and there are those who know it will not win in the future."

It is said that Senator Fairbanks never took a drop of liquor in his life and is heartily opposed to the treating habit. In fact, he has no use for a person who treats.—Interior Journal.

Is this intended to prejudice Kentuckians against the republican nominee?—Middleboro News.

No, no, dear Mr. Albrecht. We have no desire to prejudice Kentucky republicans against the nominees. We know of a far better way to get their votes. Were Hon. Mark Hanna living he could tell you the method we have in mind.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL was so well run during the editor's absence at the great World's Fair at St. Louis, he has come to the conclusion that others had reached years and years ago, i. e., that he is not the "whole thing." With a willing force of ladies and gentlemen like the I. J., has there is no trouble about the "cheapest and best" getting out on time on all occasions and if it is not chock full of good, crisp news items it is because nothing has occurred.

CONFIDENTLY believing that Hon. Harvey Helm will win the nomination for Congress, it matters not with us what method is decided on by the committee at Nicholasville Thursday, and we are not worried about the result of the meeting. There is no doubt about Mr. Helm being the choice of the democracy of this district and we believe that the majority will rule and that right will triumph whatever is done.

THE ambition for public office has led Roosevelt to display an attraction for shady politicians, giving them office over the protests of decent members of his own party and refusing to part with them even after their records have been public scandals. It is time to let his strenuous return to cowboy life.

It now transpires that the declaration contained in the republican platform assent the Congressional representation in the Southern States is really meant to reduce the democratic vote in the electoral college and give the republicans another chance at life.

It now appears that Gen. Miles refused the prohibition nomination because he wanted to vote for and support Judge Parker, in company with all patriotic Americans and did not want to be compelled to vote against himself.

It is stated that the gold democrats of Indiana to a man will support Parker and Davis. There is every reason why they should. The Hoosier State has some 20,000 of them.

Six carloads of enthusiastic friends from Kingston visited Judge Alton B. Parker and gave him a great ovation. Former State Senator Linson delivered a brief address in behalf of the visitors. Congressman Bourke Cockran, August Belmont, W. R. Rody and Patrick Mc Carren were the notable callers of the day. They conferred with the democratic nominees during the afternoon.

POLITICAL.

Hundreds more congratulatory letters and telegrams were received by Judge Parker.

Chairman Cortelyou has planned to conduct the coming campaign largely from Chicago.

The fusion Populists of Indiana have issued a call for a State Convention at Indianapolis September 14.

Parker and prudence is more preferable to the great mass of the American people than Roosevelt and recklessness.

Booth Tarkington, the noted Indiana author, has declined to accept the Republican nomination for State Senator from Indianapolis.

The report that Senator Daniel, of Virginia, is ill in St. Louis is untrue. Mr. Daniel is at his home at Lynchburg and is in good health.

Tammany Hall, it is believed, will take a large part in the democratic campaign in the East and will have recognition on the New York State ticket.

With admirable consistency republicans who contended for several years that Beckham was too young, are now lifting up their voices to wall that Davis is too old.

W. J. Bryan gave out another statement in regard to the national democratic platform. On the whole, he says, the platform is good and is worthy of the support of the party.

At Esopus, N. Y., Judge Parker received notification from William R. Hearst that he is to receive the support of the Hearst newspapers and that they are at his disposal.

Mr. Bryan has pronounced the platform "a presentable document and worthy of the support of the party." If Mr. Bryan takes this view of it his followers have nothing left to say about it.

Richard P. Ernst, chairman of the republican State central committee, issued a call for a meeting of the committee, to be held in Louisville. The committee will organize and will have many important matters to consider.

E. C. Linney, editor of the Mountain Echo, at London, and one of D. C. Edwards' managers in his race for Congress, tells the Courier Journal that Dr. Hunter won't carry but two counties in the 11th district and that Edwards is a sure winner.

What is the largest election bet recorded in the present campaign was made, when a well-known New York business man wagered $20,000 to $10,000 that Roosevelt would win. So far, as can be ascertained this is the largest wager ever made at the inception of a political campaign.

Gov. Beckham appointed the following members of the State Board of Embalmers, as authorized by an act of the last General Assembly: One year, E. C. Pearson, Louisville; two years, R. L. Shannon, Shelbyville; three years, Fred Wiehl, Lexington; four years, E. H. Wigginton, Bardstons; four years, T. R. Terrell, Bedford.

Strong pressure is being brought to bear on Senator A. P. Gorman to accept the chairmanship of the national democratic committee. Senator Gorman, it is said, does not want the place, but has already decided in any event to take an active part in the campaign. Former Senator Davis, the democratic nominee for Vice President, is said to be strongly in favor of Mr. Gorman for the chairmanship.

Ed Parker has appealed from the decision of District Chairman Bryley, of the 11th district, to the republican State central committee for refusing to call a meeting of the committee to reconsider the assessment for holding a primary in the district. He claims the meeting held June 30 was illegal, and that the assessment against the candidates of from $3,500 to $4,000 is outrageously high.

Whatever the republican view of Tillman may be, all democrats will speak kindly of him hereafter. He proved himself to be a factor for peace in the national convention and it was he and John Sharp Williams, who together, prevented the convention from making a fool of itself or going to pieces in a political passion without waiting to ascertain the occasion for it. For this Tillman is entitled to much praise and it is no wonder that the people of his own State look upon him as a man and a leader of men.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Bishop Galloway is on his way to China and Japan to look after Methodist Church interests.

Rev. C. E. Powell, of Lexington, will preach at McCormack's church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. All are cordially invited to hear him.

Rev. J. W. Graham, of Louisville, was here Sunday and yesterday in the interest of the Christian church Orphan's Home. He preached at the Christian church Sunday morning.

Elks from all over the country are pouring into Cincinnati to attend the Grand Lodge convention and reunion, which will be in session all the week, beginning today.

Chicago experienced the hottest weather Sunday since 1901, the thermometer registering 94 degrees, resulting in three deaths and a score of prostrations.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

J. R. Cook has been appointed master commissioner of the Pulaski circuit court.

The Rockcastle Development Co., with $1,000 capital, has been incorporated.

Wm. Stewart, who had served Adair county as county attorney, is dead of heart disease.

The post-office at Junction City, Boyle county, has been relegated to the fourth class, with the incumbent, John H. Hankla, postmaster.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the Danville public school Prof. J. P. Bolling, of Parksville, was chosen a teacher in addition to the present force. John P. McNally, an engineer on the Cincinnati Southern railroad, fell from his cab on High Bridge and his neck was broken, yet he still lives in the hospital at Lexington.

Morris G. Vanarsdall, who has just served a term in the penitentiary, is under arrest in Cincinnati, charged with forging the name of J. Willard Mitchell, of Nicholasville, to a check and securing the money on it.

The Boyle county democratic committee has ordered a primary to be held Aug. 27 to select a candidate for the office of county judge. There are but two candidates in the race so far, and it is expected there will be no more entries. County Judge Nichols, who is filling out the unexpired term of the late Judge Prewitt, and Homer Baughman are the candidates.

Edward Cox, aged eight years, son of Dr. B. D. Cox, who was assassinated at Jackson two years ago, shot and killed his four-year-old brother while playing with an old rifle.

LOCALS.

ROOMS for rent. Apply to W. N. Craig.

LOST—A Georgetown College class- book. Leave at this office.

FOR RENT.—New house of seven rooms on Lancaster street. W. B. O' Bannon.

AGENT J. S. RICE sold 67 tickets for the excursion which left Stanford for Louisville Sunday morning.

READY.—I am now ready to receive guests at Olympus Springs, near Mt. Salem, at $5.50 per week. F. M. Sims, Manager.

THE Kirkeville Fair was a great suc- cess. Matt Cohen won the Banker's stake with the chestnut stallion, Ver- dict. C. T. Sandidge got fourth money with a Chester Dare mare.

DROWNED.—Ruth, the eight-year- old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Portman, of Liberty, was drowned in Green river Saturday afternoon. Lit- tle Ruth, with other children, was out picking berries and had gone into the river to bathe her feet. Ethel Fan- ning, a playmate, had a narrow escape from drowning. The mother of the unfortunate child is a sister of Mrs. Ed Wilkinson, of this place.

OPENING BALL.—The opening ball at Crab Orchard Springs Friday night was a decided success. There were belles and beaux galore on hand and Manager J. B. Willis made all feel glad to have been there. Saxton's excellent orchestra furnished the music and the light fantastic was tripped until a late hour. There are about 90 guests at the Springs now and the fare is splendid and the water delightful.

HELD OVER.—Geo. Craig, colored, was held over to circuit court in Judge Bailey's court Friday for appropriating a dozen fine chickens from Hon. R. C. Warren's coop. His bond was fixed at $100, which he failed to give. He had sold seven of the chickens and devour- ed five. Marshal Jones found the heads of those he had eaten and Mr. War- ren's daughter identified them as the ones taken from her home.

ROBBERS entered the Shelby City postoffice Friday night and secured $40 in money and stamps. The office at Junction City was robbed a week pre- vious. It is strange, but nevertheless true, that more postoffices are robbed just before national elections than any other time. There are various ways of getting campaign money and it seems that our friends, the republicans, are "on to" them all.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT.—In this issue will be found the announcement of Mr. Garland Singleton for re-election as superintendent of public schools in Lincoln. Mr. Singleton needs no in- troduction to the democrats of the coun- ty. Every one knows he has made a faithful, conscientious and pains-taking official during the two terms of his in- cumbency as superintendent. He has always voted the straight democratic ticket and worked for its nominees in season and out and there is no doubt but what he will prove a formidable candidate.

If you want a nice pair of Belgian hares, call on J. A. Brummett, Sauffley, Ky.

ROUGH lumber, fence post, poplar, oak and chestnut. Shingles for sale. H. J. McRoberts.

HOUSE for rent on East Main Street, Stanford. Apply to G. B. Cooper. Mrs. M. E. Bronaugh.

NOTICE.—All persons indebted to us by note or account will please call and settle at once and save cost. Carson & Pence.

TO FARMERS.—I will furnish the best threshing coal, the Jellico, at my yard at Howland at 9c. Quality guaranteed. Elmer B. Denham.

J. T. JONES, the Stanford restau- rant, has secured the dining privi- leges of the Crab Orchard and Broad- head fairs. Visitors at those fairs may expect A 1 diners.

THERE were 14 teachers before the board of examiners, Miss Kate Bogle and Mr. L. R. Hughes, Friday and Sat- urday and three got first class certi- ficates, two second class, three third class and six failed.

THE Crab Orchard Fair & Racing Association has finished regrading and throwing up the turns on their race track. The work was done by W. C. Gormley, of Richmond, who is an expert track builder. It is a "daisy," and Mr. Gormley pronounces it the best track in the State.

LARGE POTATOES.—Mr. John Christ- man brought in to us Saturday three Irish potatoes of the Chicago Market variety, second crop seed, which weigh- ed three pounds and two ounces. He will have seed from the same variety next Spring for sale. They are the largest potatoes we have seen in many a day.

WE are indebted to the Broadhead Fair Association for one of its cata- logues, which was gotten out by the Mt. Vernon Signal and is a most cred- itable job. The premium list is a lib- eral one. Robt. L. Collier, secretary, an old Lincoln county boy, and J. Har- vey Dunn, assistant secretary, insure the people a good exhibition—Aug. 17, 18, 19.

If you want to attend the biggest sale of stock ever held in this section of the State go to R. E. Goddard's sale, near Burgin, Wednesday next, 20th. Trains on C. S. and L. S. get there in time and the 4:30 C. S. fast train which connects with L. S. and all other trains at Lexington will stop that evening. Besides many fine horses and colts, 30 shorthorn cattle will be sold. Remember the date and go.

CARD OF THANKS.—Will you please permit us space in the columns of your paper to express to our Lincoln county friends the sincere thanks and heart- felt appreciation for the many comfort- ing letters of condolence and sympathy we have received in our recent sad be- reavement. To respond to each would be a source of gratification, but we trust this means will suffice for the present. Sincerely, Mrs. Stapp and daughter, Louisville, July 15, 1904.

BEHIND THE TIMES.—Friday's Lan- caster Record contained a notice of Manager E. H. Beazley's elocutionary contest, which Editor Landram insists on the people attending at "Stanford on the 17th." Why, Bro. Landram that interesting event took place at Wal- ton's Opera House the 17th of last month—June. Awake from your Rip Van Winkle lethargy, out and come again. If you want fresh and up-to- date news, now is the time to subscribe for the "cheapest and best," $1 per year, twice a week.

As a reproduction of a new opera brings into play the whistling ability of the small boys who have heard the rendition, so the singing of "The Green Kentucky Pastures" at the Ken- tucky building on Kentucky day has developed for this song a popularity that had not previously come to it. The song is a most "catchy" one and easily remembered, hence strains from it may be heard frequently since it was sung at the "New Kentucky Home."

"The Green Kentucky Pastures" was written by Mrs. Kate Slaughter Mc- Kinney, known to the reading and sing- ing world as "Katydid," now of Mont- gomery, Ala., but a former Kentucki- an.—St. Louis dispatch to Louisville Times.

RESIGNED.—Mrs. Mary J. Cochran, who has been a teacher at the Graded School here for some time, has resign- ed to accept a similar position at Way- nesburg. She left Saturday for that place and began her school yesterday. We commend her to the people of that place as being a most excellent woman and a fine teacher.

AT a meeting of the new board of di- rectors, Mr. B. Frank Rout was elect- ed business manager of the Stanford Water Light & Ice Co. When the com- pany was organized about 12 years ago Mr. Rout was given his first employ- ment in the capacity of ditch and post- hole digger and his election as business manager is the merited reward of a man whose steady rise shows what is in him.

ABRAHAM.—Mrs. Harriett L. Ab- rahams, aged about 65, died at her home in the East End Sunday after a protracted illness of a complication of troubles. In speaking of her yesterday, Eld. J. G. Livingston, who knew her well, said: "You can say she was a splendid christian woman and that she will be sadly missed in her neighbor- hood." The burial took place in the Crab Orchard cemetery at 10 o'clock yesterday morning after services by Rev. W. T. B. White, a close friend of the family. Mrs. Abrahams was a de- vout member of the Cumberland Pres- byterian church and no woman in her section was more beloved. The follow- ing children survive her: Mrs. John Henry, of Knoxville, Mrs. R. C. By- waters, of Nez Perce, Idaho, Mrs. Kit- tie Heath, Mrs. Charles Garner. Mrs. Davis and Robert Abraham.

Seven persons were killed and hun- dreds of homes destroyed by the cloud- burst in Chile.

"Ice cold lemonade" was served dur- ing services at the Christian church in Maysville.

Great damage was done to crops in Wisconsin by a wind and rain storm.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC.

At home once more I want to say to my many friends and to the public that I have come to stay. I have bought the J. H. Carter mill in Stanford, Ky., known as the Farmer's Roller Mills. I did my first milling here in 1872 and I am here to stay. I will say to my friends and the public that I will do my own milling and will be at the mill at all times, day and night, to wait on you and will take pleasure in doing so. Will make custom work a specialty in the business. I will put the mill in first-class shape and will insure you first-class flour and meal for your grain and will also say to any one who wishes to deposit his wheat for his year's flour that we are now ready to receive it and are now as well prepared to take care of your grain as any mill in the State and will do it. We will be making meal by the first of next week, but will not be able to make flour for about two weeks. We invite one and all to come and get as good flour and meal as is made in Ken- tucky and all that is due you. I wish to say to the public and my friends generally that Mr. S. R. Walls is my partner in this business and is an honorable gentle- man and we will treat you just and right in every respect. The style of the firm is D. V. Kennedy & Co., Stanford, Ky.

Respectfully yours,

D. V. KENNEDY & CO.

Try for Health

222 South Peoria St.,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 7, 1902.
Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie or sit down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui. I told her I had not and she bought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.

Surgar Dumber

Don't you want freedom from pain? Take Wine of Cardui and make one supreme effort to be well. You do not need to be a weak, helpless sufferer. You can have a woman's health and do a woman's work in life. Why not secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist to day?

To The Voters of the Fifth Appellate Court District of Kentucky.

I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this district, subject to the action of the democratic party. As circuit judge, it became my duty to try a number of criminal cases, which have become a part of the State's history and at a most critical time. As judge of the State fiscal court, it fell to my lot to construe the Statutes adopted, to put in force the provisions of the new constitution, as well as to construe the present constitution whenever a controversy arose as to its proper construction. Almost innumerable cases have burdened the dockets of my court, touching the rights of corporations and the exercise of franchises under the law. How well I have discharged my duties under such trying circumstances, is left to you to determine.

I will be very grateful to all who feel they can assist me to secure the high position and office to which I aspire.

Very respectfully,
JAMES E. CANTRILL.

No Pity Shown.
